

IOS Lister's Corner 2005

Illinois Life Lists

(minimum 250 species)

For the first time in years there's a change at the top of the state list: both Jeff Sanders and Jim Landing passed the last submitted totals for Bob Chapel and Tom Pucelik. Congrats to both! As always, there were new arrivals to the Illinois list such as Fork-tailed Flycatcher, and Trumpeter Swan reappeared as a countable bird. Birders who hit 300 include Karen and Ted Forcum (Harlequin Duck for both), Tom Kelly (Eurasian Collared-Dove) and Bob Shelby (Yellow Rail). In past years we've noted those listers over 300 who've added the most species during the year, but this year it's been fun to watch Anthony Friend and Thad Edmonds add species after species. In the end, Thad added 45 and Anthony added 31 during 2005! -Joe Lill
