County Lists: Life Lists & Big Years

County Life Lists (150 minimum, or top three totals)

The County Life List is a staple of Lister's Corner, being one of the oldest, and certainly, the most extensive list. In recent years we took the top three even if they weren't over 150 species. As the years have progressed, it's quickly become apparent that the time will soon come when you'll need to have that magical 150 in order to have your tally make it on the list. In the meantime though, there still are a few counties ripe for more extensive exploring.

A number of lists deserve special recognition. At least seven counties have a new birder listed at the top, highlighted by Bob Shelby's Marion tally of 195. Others who set new standards include Leroy Harrison in Clay (188) and Crawford (141), Craig Taylor in Ford (182), Doug Stotz in Henry (150), Tim Kuesel in Scott (126) and Jeff Chapman/Doug Stotz, who are tied in Macoupin (100).

Other noteworthy results easily lost in the above mentioned achievements were from birders moving into the second position with tallies over 150. These include Bob Shelby in Clay, Tim Kuesel in Ford, Jeff Chapman in Grundy, Andy Sigler in Kankakee, Leroy Harrison in both Marion and Wayne. There hasn't been this much change near the top of so many county lists in many years!

Lastly, an interesting oddity is that the top three listers for both Scott and Crawford weren't even listed in that county last year. -EW (updated 5/1/07; compiled by Eric Walters & Joe Lill)

County Big Years

With Jeff Chapman doing a Total Tick Big Year, he was able to set 31 new County Big Years, despite his highest new county record only reaching 144! Doug Stotz (3 counties) and Thad Edmonds (2 counties) also moved to the top without crossing 150 in their year tallies. It would seem an active birder could reach 150 in a year within their home county, so this list does have growth opportunities. At the very least, each county does have tallies to target. Other noteworthy tallies this year include Jeff Sanders' 260 in Cook (tied for 5th alltime), Eric Walters' 247 in Lake (4th alltime), Bob Fisher's 229 in DuPage, John McKee's 219 in LaSalle (4th) and Bob Shelby's 200 in Jasper (2nd).

There are three tallies, all new County Big Year records, that stand out from the rest. Frank Holmes' 224 in Madison beat his old record by 5. Jim Mountjoy went one further, beating his former record in Knox by getting 225. However, the top award this year goes to Travis Mahan, who exceeded his old Macon County record by 5%, ending with an excellent total of 231. Congratulations to all birders who set or came close to new county records this year!

Consider visiting a county once each season this year. For most counties, this should put you in the 125-150 range, which for many counties could set a new record.

(225 minimum in Cook; 200 minimum in DuPage & Lake; 150 minimum or top three totals)
