Historical Big Year List: all Illinois Big Years over 250 species

Besides contributing the second best tally this year, Dan Kassebaum dug into his personal archives and shared his past Big Year tallies, giving a more complete historical record for this list. If you have past Big Year tallies you've never sent or know of a few old ones from others, please do submit them. In the last nine years, there has been an average of about three listers per year breaking through the 300 barrier. This shows that with some time, planning and skill, an intrepid birder can achieve this personal milestone.
